

THE LAW

You are breaking the law and committing a criminal offence if you:

- Insult, threaten, rape or beat someone.
- Do not pay for the services.
- Force someone to have sexual intercourse/force someone to engage in a sexual practice.
- Pay for sex with a minor.

Do you suspect forced labour or human trafficking? Report your suspicions anonymously to www.fiz-info.ch or call 044 436 90 00.

CLEAR RULES

Rules of conduct for safe and fair sex.

FAIR SEX

RESPECT

Sex work is a profession offering services like many others. Be fair and respectful.

The services and their prices are non-negotiable and must be paid for in advance.

Respect what has been mutually agreed.

No means no: Accept the specifications of the sex workers.

Always use a condom and a lubricant.

If you have any questions, please contact your counselling centres anonymously and free of charge: www.aids.ch

HEALTH

Having sex can transmit sexually transmitted diseases. Protect yourself.

Always use a condom when having vaginal and anal sex. This way you prevent an infection with HIV.

Always use a condom and dental dams when having oral sex. This way you reduce the risk of an infection with syphilis, gonorrhoea and other diseases.

Get tested regularly for HIV and other sexually transmitted infections. Information can be found under www.get-tested.ch
